

Possible Road map

- The proposed change over to alternate political system does not involve any alteration to basic structure of the constitution as it guarantees the fundamental rights and independence of the judiciary.
- Possible by valid amendment to the constitution under Article 368 (2) which requires 2/3rd majority of Parliament.
- It will also require ratification by legislatures of not less than half of the states.
- Consensus necessary among political parties for such an amendment to Constitution (especially leaders).
